GREENEVILLE NEWS

Large Attendance at the Congregational Church-Sunday School Exercises -Other Church Services Personals.

At the Easter morning service of the At the Easter morning service of the Greeneville Congregational church there was a large attendance, and the pastor, Rev. C. H. Ricketts, delivered a forceful and convincing sermon on Evidences of the Truth of the Resurrection of Christ. Rev. Mr. Ricketts took for his subject the 39th verse of the 24th chapter of Luke: Behold, see my hands and my feet that it is I, myself, handle me and see, for a spirit hath not flesh and bones as ye behold me having.

me having.
Rev. Mr. Ricketts said:
Life and not death is dominant in religion. Its evidence is seen in the resurrection of Christ. From the call of Abraham to the time of Christ death was dominant. The most far-reaching event in the annals of mankind is the resurrection, yet the truth of the resurrection is widely questioned. The word resurrection means but one thing, and not several things. It comes from the Latin and means the resuming of life.
On the Sunday morning following the crucifixion the tomb where the body of Christ lay was empty. People who question the truth of the resurrection say that Mary made a mistake in the location of the tomb, and had come across one that had never been used. This is barely possible, but it is not probable that Mary would mistake the place where her Lord lay. Others say that the body of Christ had been carried away by his disciples and had been secretly buried.

This again is not probable, because after the crucifixion Christ's disciples were like lost sheep, without a leader. Everything points to the truth of the resurrection. Further evidence his disciples when he said: "Behold, it is I. A spirit hath not flesh and bones." The disciples saw before them the living Christ and not the dead.

At the offeriory Mrs. Louis O. Poter rendered a solo, accompanied by Miss Leutia Kramer, organist. The floral decorations, Easter lilies and palms were heavitful. palms, were beautiful.

Easter Exercises. At the Sunday school session, which was called to order at 12 o'clock by O.
W. Carpenter, the superintendent, there was a nicely arranged Easter programme. After the singing of a hymn and prayer by Rev. Mr. Ricketts, hymn and prayer by Rev. Mr. Ricketts, the pastor, the programme was rendered as follows: Easter Morning, Misses Lulu Penfield, Lillian Karkutt, Edith Wilson and Mary Finlayson: Christ is Risen, Miss Anna Gorton: Easter Bells, Miss Phyllis Gilchrist; Easter, infant class; solo, Risen as He Said, Miss Lillian Karkutt, accompanied by Miss Jennie Purdon; Lillies, Violets and Daffodils, Misses Marguerte Sutthill, Marion Blackledge and the Sutthill, Marion Blackledge and Winifred Zahn; A Lesson from the Violets, Raymond Harris; solo, Risen Indeed, Miss Mary Lamb, accompanied Indeed, Miss Mary Lamb, accompanied by Miss Letitia Kramer; remarks, Rev. How to Save

Your Eyes Try This Free Prescription

Do your eyes give you trouble? Do

Do your eyes give you trouble? Do you already wear eyeglasses or spectacles? Thousands of people wear these "windows" who might easily dispense with them. You may be one of these, and it is your duty to save your eyes before it is too late. The eyes are neglected more than any other organ of the entire bedy. After you finish your day's work you sit down and rest your muscles, but how about your eyes? Do you rest them? You know you do not. You read or do something eise that keeps your eyes busy; you work your eyes until you go to bed. That is why so many have strained eyes and finally other eye troubles that threaten partial or total blindness. Eyeglasses are merely crutches; they never cure. This free prescription, which has benefited the eyes of so many, may work equal wonders for you. Use it a short time. Would you like your eye troubles to disappear as if by magic. Try this prescription.
